Merry Christmas to all and blessings upon your family and friends gathering to celebrate the birth of Jesus! Thank you all who do so much throughout the year to make our parishes successful through your volunteer work and generous donations. Thank you also for your generosity to me in your prayers. I don't get thank you cards out as I should but please know that I am grateful for God giving me the opportunity to serve you.

After Christmas and most of January I'll be out due to a minor surgery. There have been some minor complications and so, hopefully, the procedure will take place on January 10. You can still contact me on my cell phone by call or text but I'll be recovering for a while. Your prayers are appreciated. Also, have a Blessed New Year!

Fr. Richard.
