Bishops & Brews: The Nebraska Catholic Conference will be hosting a “theology on tap”-like event on the evening of Wednesday, June 22nd, with Bishop Hanefeldt. The event, Bishops & Brews, will be a social hour (7-8 pm) and panel discussion (8-9 pm) celebration of religious liberty, in anticipation of Religious Liberty Week (June 22-29). It will take place outdoors at Kinkaid Brewing Co. in downtown Grand Island. The panel will feature the Bishop, Nate Grasz of Nebraska Family Alliance (a close public policy ally with the NCC), and Tom Venzor of the NCC. We are hosting similar events in the other two dioceses. Cash bar will be available. If you have any questions/comments about the event, feel free to contact Tom Venzor (o: 402.477.7517; c: 402.615.1199) or Paige Brown (pbrown@necatholic.org; o: 402.477.7517).

Treasures of the Church: Spirit Catholic Radio (Spirit 91.5-FM) presents Treasures of the Church—a relics exposition and healing ministry—at St. Mary Cathedral in Grand Island on Mon., June 20, at 6:30 p.m. More than 150 sacred relics will be on display, some believed to be as old as 2,000 years. Among the treasures are relics of Pope St. John Paul II, St. Therese of Lisieux, St. Francis of Assisi, St. Anthony of Padua, St. Thomas Aquinas, St. Padre Pio, and St. Faustina. In addition, there will be one of the largest remaining pieces of the True Cross in the world, as well as, a piece of a veil believed to have belonged to Our Lady. Presented by Fr. Carlos Martins of the Companions of the Cross. Attendees are encouraged to bring their articles of devotion (such as rosaries, holy cards, etc.) and pictures of ill friends/family members who may be touched to the reliquaries as a means of intercessory prayer. The ministry has had reports of healing among several visitors to the exposition. More details can be found at spiritcatholicradio.com. The event is FREE and open to the public.
