THANK YOU! The 2022 St. Josaphat's Bazaar was a huge success, and it was all due to the many people who donated their time, talents, and energy. We were blessed with a beautiful day and the generosity of all who attended. A special thanks to the CCW for a wonderful breakfast and bake sale, Dave and Ellen Rokusek and Friends for providing music, the CCD classes and Confirmation classes for helping wherever they were needed, the great work of the bingo and raffle committees and the many other committees that make our Church Bazaar possible. We would also like to express our sincere appreciation for all the donations from community members and businesses. We are blessed to live in a community where people are willing to step up and help out. Thank you again!

– The 2022 Bazaar Committee – Clay & Jen Fowler, Nick & Lindsay Gappa, and Jeff & Lisa Rademacher.

If you are interested in helping to continue the tradition of our church bazaar, please contact the office or one of the above members of the past committee to offer your assistance for next year. Jeff and Lisa will need (at least) four people to join the committee in order to move forward. Thank you!
