QUESTION OF THE WEEK: FIRST READING:Jeremias 23:1-6:1. In this reading the Lord speaks to the bad shepherds, i.e. the leaders of his people. What must be the priorities or values of a shepherd whose sheep tremble and fear? What are the priorities and values of "The Lord of Justice"? 2. Imagine being a caretaker of people in the way that a shepherd is for sheep. What can you do about the fear people experience all over the world due to injustice? Can you do anything to remedy any of the injustice? Is there anything you can do about unfair situations in your own living area? Anne Osdieck at St. Louis University.

FAREWELL FOR DEACON DAN GILBERT:How fast the last two months have passed. Now we have to bid farewell and give our "Thanks" and our "Prayers" to Deacon Dan for all that he has done here at the cluster Churches. You will be missed but remember us and keep us in your prayers as we shall keep you in ours. After the Mass on Saturday (28TH) there will be coffee and cookies in the St. Joseph Parish Hall. Following Mass on Sunday, (29TH) there will be coffee and rolls. Your presence will be greatly appreciated so come and wish Deacon Dan a fond farewell.

POTTED FLOWERS OR PLANTS: If any green thumbed parishioners would like to share some of their beautiful flowers and plants with us for a weekend we would love to show them to all. If you do have plants or even cut flowers please call Krista Slobaszewski at 308-380-2720. Real flowers add so much beauty to our already lovely church.

HUMAN TRAFFICKING: Research conducted at Creighton University with the support of the Women's Fund of Omaha suggests that as many as 900 individuals are sold for sex in Nebraska each month. Hot spots for human trafficking include many communities within our diocese along the I-80 corridor. Both the National Council of Catholic Women and Catholic Daughters have identified awareness and prevention of human trafficking as a service project. Community Coalitions are forming across the state to raise public awareness of the signs of trafficking and educate hotel and motel staff in identifying and reporting concerns. Sister Margaret Nacke, founder of the US Catholic Sisters Against Human Trafficking, recently facilitated presentations at Grand Island's Blessed Sacrament Parish and Grand Island Central Catholic Middle/High School. In her presentation she showed a compelling video produced by Shared Hope International, an organization committed to ending human trafficking. The video is now available through the Diocesan media library. If you want to show the video contact the Diocese of Grand Island Child Protection Office at 308-382-6565 or cpo@gidiocese.org.

PRAYFULLY REMEMBER: All who are hospitalized, homebound, in nursing homes, and all with health concerns. Pray for all who ask our God for healing strength.
